45 people were arrested on February 19 in Harare for showing a video about the Egyptian democracy struggle.

Originally accused of treason, charges were dropped against 39 of them. However, David Mpatsi, one of those released has since died from the mistreatment he received in custody.

The ongoing prosecution of Munyaradzi Gwisai, Tafadzwa Antonater Choto, Hopewell Gumbo, Tatenda Mombeyarara, Edson Chakuma, and Welcome Zimuto is an insult to human rights.

I respectfully request that the charges be dropped and the police actions in the matter be investigated.
